

DR. JANANYA STHIENCHOAK

UNIVERSITY Department of Banking and Finance, Chulalongkorn University
SUBJECT RESPONSIBLE Foundation: International Financial Decisions and Management

ACADEMIC BACKGROUND

Doctor of Philosophy (Comparative Financial Management and Banking - East Asia; International Business Relations; International Monetary Theory and Policy) Tufts University, 2014
Master of Business Administration (Thai Securities and Exchange Commission's Scholarship) (Finance) Indiana University at Bloomington, 1996
Bachelor of Business Administration (Second Class Honors) (Banking and Finance) Chulalongkorn University, 1993

SELECTED PUBLICATION

Jamprasert, N., Kuwalairat, P., Srivisal, N. & Sthienchoak, J. (2019). ESG and Creditworthiness: Two Contrary Evidence from Major Asian Markets. Asian Academy of Management International Conference 2019, Penang, Malaysia.

Saengsakdaharn, P., Srivisal, N. & Sthienchoak, J. (2019). Nielsen Advertising Spending Public Reports and Returns on Thai Media Stocks. 2nd International Research Conference on Management, Leadership and Social Sciences.129-139.

Sthienchoak, J. (2017). Effects of Firms' Adoption of Employee Stock Ownership Schemes on Their Stock Prices: Evidence from Thai Listed Firms. CMRI Working Paper Forum 2017, Capital Market Research Institute, The Stock Exchange of Thailand, Bangkok, Thailand.

Asavaroungpipop, N., Budsaratragoon, P., Inlakorn, S., Lhaopadchan, S. & Sthienchoak, J. (2016). Board and Management Remuneration of Thai Listed Companies in SET and mai. CMRI Working Paper Forum 2016, Capital Market Research Institute, The Stock Exchange of Thailand, Bangkok, Thailand.

Sthienchoak, J., Inlakorn, S. (2016). Board Efficiency and Firm Performance: Evidence from SET and mai Listed Firms. CMRI Working Paper Forum 2016, Capital Market Research Institute, The Stock Exchange of Thailand, Bangkok, Thailand.